

Medea Benjamin

IN CENTRAL OKLAHOMA
SEPTEMBER 11 & 12

Co-founder of Code-Pink: Women for Peace and the international human rights organization Global Exchange, Medea Benjamin is the author of eight books on her 30 years work for social justice in Central America, Africa, the Middle East, Israel/Palestine, women's issues, torture, and drones.

Described by the Los Angeles Times as "one of the high profile leaders of the peace movement" she was one of 1,000 women from 140 countries nominated to receive the Nobel Peace Prize on behalf of the millions of women who do essential global peace work.

NORMAN

Thursday, Sept. 11

Sam Noble Natural History Museum, Norman

5pm: Kerr Auditorium opens.

5:30: Speech/Book-signing

7pm: Limited supper and Q&A
(must RSVP to marjan@ou.edu)

OKLAHOMA CITY*

Friday, Sept. 12

Church of the Open Arms
3131 N. Pennsylvania Ave

6:30 pm - Doors open

7:00 pm - Presentation

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

*Cosponsored by Americans Against the Next War, The Peace House, Herland Sister Resources, Center for Conscience in Action